Yes, I briefly ran it by him since I had not gotten to see if you touched base with him before you left. I said I would get him what Wayne was shooting our way. I will hit him in the morning when I see him and let you know if I get any feedback.

Matt has been gone all day today and I think he is out of the office the rest of the week starting Thursday.

Can you go talk to Matt and explain all this to him - I wasn't able to corner him but seem like you may want to go ahead since I am not there. Give him the background.

Boss – Here is a suggested itinerary from Nastri about the possible trip to Alaska the week of the 25th. These are just suggestions to help with planning from the groups that we have worked with in the past. It might very well parallel what R10 has already sent. I think you should take a look, and make sure that Matt takes a look at it before they finalize anything that R10 sent through to scheduling. Matt stated that the meeting to discuss feasibility of the trip was tomorrow. I said that I would at least get him something to look at in case you were offline. Natri can most likely provide NRDC (very active on Bristol Bay), Native Alaskan tribal leaders (that have met with Perciasepe), and of course the Commercial and Sports Fisherman groups that he was going to have in DC. I have spoken to Wayne and they are willing to work at helping set some items up that would probably be useful to us.

On another note, if you want to take it this far, I do have the capability of reaching out to some celebs to see if they would jump on board with EPA and/or the Enviro Groups on the Bristol Bay fight. I don't know the rules but if paired up with NRDC, Sierra, etc... to come up with an outreach commercial/s with some celebs maybe we could garner some more leverage. EPA could update the celebs on the situation and then the enviros could set forth funding for a campaign? Just a thought and it might be impossible but we over the years have had many celebs call in for one reason or another asking how they could help. Maybe we should find some ways for them to actually do it!

Here is the word file pasted below so you can read it on your blackberry.

Suggested/Possible Travel Scenario for Administrator Visit to Bristol Bay

Day 1: Travel to, and overnight in Anchorage – Possibly meet with w/RA McLerran and staff for dinner depending on arrival time

Day 2: Travel to Dillingham first thing in morning

Meet with Bristol Bay Coalition Members (approximately 1.5 hrs)

Bristol Bay United

Bristol Bay Native Corporation

Trout Unlimited

Commercial Fishermen

Lodge Owners

Natural Resources Defense Council

Alaskan Village Representatives

Community Members

Tour of Commercial Fishing fleet in Dillingham (approximately 1 hour)

Review Commercial fishing boats and processor facilities (learn of jobs and investment opportunities)

Lunch and Afternoon Meeting with United Tribes of Bristol Bay/Tribal Representatives (possibly at Mission Lodge)

Overnight in Dillingham

Day 3: Aerial Overview of Bristol Bay Watershed and proposed Pebble Mine Site (approximately 2 hours)

Visit Alaskan Native Villages – Suggest New Stuyahok, Iguigig or Iliamna (Note: if Iliamna, could also possibly meet with Pebble Limited Partnership Lunch in village and meet with representatives in village. (2-3hrs)

Depart Dillingham (or directly from a village) and either depart Anchorage that night or overnight in Anchorage

Day 4: Possibly meet with PLP representatives in morning (if not able to meet them in villages) and then Depart for Washington DC/Seattle in early afternoon

Hi Don,

I know you will check with the region on the itinerary details and we would be happy to work with you in any way you deem appropriate. I've attached a rough outline of the meetings that the different groups would like. As an FYI, United Tribes of Bristol Bay submitted their request for a visit by the Administrator today and were acknowledged by Dave Evans (he noted the request was timely). Also, if the Administrator so desires, there may be some time to fish or tour a river by boat on the first day in Bristol Bay (it won't get dark till late – 10:00 pm or so). Just a thought. Anyway, I hope this helps. I look forward to hearing from you! Thanks again and all my best!
